

Primarily Speaking: Tips and Tricks for Integrating Primary Documents into Teaching & Learning

Webinar

Primarily Speaking: Tips and Tricks for Integrating Primary Documents into Teaching & Learning

https://players.brightcove.net/2566261579001/HyuWsfFhb_default/index.html?videoId=6278342845001

About

Come and experience primary documents as tools for inquiry, project based learning, and critical thinking lessons. In this webinar, teacher-librarian, NBCT, and past President of CSLA, Connie Williams, leads an interactive session on several different strategies for teaching with and teaching about primary documents. Connie shares ways to help students think critically about primary documents in a variety of content areas. The webinar is packed with tips and tricks that are ready for immediate implementation. Viewers will walk away with a treasure trove of places to find great primary documents and strategies for instruction.

This is a professional learning opportunity that you do not want to miss! Teachers of all grades, librarians, and anyone who is interested in teaching with primary sources will benefit from watching this webinar.

Resources

- Webinar Resources Handout
- Bridging Time with Primary Sources
- Listen Up! Collaboration Using 20th Century Audiovisual Primary Sources
- Now on Exhibit: Prompting Higher Order Thinking Skills through Primary Sources
- On the Road Again: The Stories Maps Can Tell
- Pairing Literature with Primary Sources

MLA CITATION

Williams, Connie Hamner. "Primarily Speaking: Tips and Tricks for Integrating Primary Documents into Teaching & Learning." School Library Connection, October 2015, schoollibraryconnection.com/Content/Webinar/?learningModuleId=2269484&topicCenterId=2247902.

<https://schoollibraryconnection.com/Content/Webinar/?learningModuleId=2269484&topicCenterId=2247902>

Entry ID: 2269484